

SAYING NO WITH A TWIST:

With an invitation...

Leave the door open for the future. "Not now, but maybe later" ...
"Another time"

With a pretend friend...

"Sorry, I promised someone else that honor."

With an attitude....

"You know what your problem is? You think too much about others.
Can I get you another drink?"

Have a quick one liner up your sleeve, like....

"No thanks, I'm still a little partied out from the last blowout."

"Sorry, I am getting ready to blow out of here."

"No thank you, I'm allergic to alcohol and it's not a pretty picture."
